

Downtown Sailing Center 2023 Community Engagement Partnerships

CHARM CITY'S

21st Annual
YA' GOTTA REGATTA

Downtown Sailing Center - Ya' Gotta Regatta 2023

1425 Key Highway, Suite #110

Baltimore MD 21230

(410) 727-0722

www.downtownsailing.org

info@downtownsailing.org

The Downtown Sailing Center – “Where Sailing is for Everyone!”

www.downtownsailing.org/ygr | 1425 Key Hwy, Suite #110, Baltimore MD 21230 | (410) 727-0722

Johns Hopkins MedicineLimb Loss Support Group*

Many people with limb loss experience emotional distress during their recovery and rehabilitation. Higher levels of emotional distress have been shown to negatively impact rehabilitation outcomes and quality of life. Further, data indicate that many people with limb loss who report significant depressive symptomology reported needing mental health services but not receiving them.

Ataxia Center

Many patients have been told that ataxia is untreatable. However, with the right adaptive devices, the right medical advice, judicious use of medications, proper exercise, and patient and caregiver education, we can substantially improve the quality of life for our patients.

Roland Park Place

Roland Park Place is the only full-service, accredited not-for-profit Life Plan retirement community in Baltimore City and is a leader in aging services for older adults and their families.

Roland Park Place offers premier access to city life coupled with the comfort and convenience of suburban living — all within a beautifully landscaped park-like setting with breathtaking city skyline views.

Humanim

Humanim is a Baltimore County, Maryland based 501(c)3 non-profit organization committed to provide support and empower individuals who face social or economic challenges. Providing job training, Humanim empower clients to achieve economic independence. They also build social impact businesses that create jobs and solve social and environmental problems in our communities

Court Appointed Social Advocates (CASA) of Baltimore

CASA is a Baltimore County, Maryland based 501(c)3 non-profit organization committed to providing youth in the foster care system court appointed special advocates to speak for the best interests of abused and neglected children involved in Baltimore juvenile court system to encourage reunification, help them find a permanent family.

Loyola Clinical Stroke Survivors Support Group

The Loyola Clinical Centers (LCC) provides a broad range of audiology, literacy, psychology, and speech and language services to our clients. We work with all members of the community, from childhood through adulthood, and we provide a variety of evaluations, treatments, and trainings to individuals, couples, and families and groups.

Mt. Washington Pediatrics Hospital Abilities Adventures Program

Abilities Adventures is a program that uses outdoor adventures, sports, and leisure to empower, motivate and improve the quality of life for children and teenagers post-hospitalization.

Bridges Program

Bridges is a Baltimore County, Maryland based 501(c)3 non-profit organization committed to the long-term success of motivated Baltimore City youth and to life changing opportunities for independent school students ages 9-23.

God's Best Family

God's Best Family is a Baltimore, Maryland based 501(c)3 non-profit organization that provides Childcare Services, Educational Services, Health Awareness, Career Development and necessary resources for low to moderate income families and individuals in order to reinforce and advance long term success.

Equipment Connections for Children

ECFC connects with families of children living with disabilities in order to help fulfill vital unmet adaptive equipment needs, provide educational workshops, and foster community, free of charge.

Ability Alliance

Ability Alliance's mission is to support, educate, and engage communities in creating equity in the lives of those impacted by developmental barriers such as disability, homelessness, poverty, and other systemic oppressions.

Ability Pride

July is Disability Pride month; the DSC was a part of Maryland's first annual Ability Pride!

Empower 4 Life

Empower 4 Life is a Baltimore, Maryland based 501(c)3 non-profit organization that serves Baltimore and Harford County homeless youth through programs that teach them how to get and stay happy and healthy

The Snyder Center for Aphasia Life Enhancement Program

The Snyder Center for Aphasia Life Enhancement (SCALE) Aphasia Program improves the quality of life for people living with aphasia and their families by providing individuals with aphasia a place to connect, offering group activities designed to support and empower members as they re-engage in community, raising public awareness and understanding of aphasia through community outreach and advocacy projects.

League for People with Disabilities

The League has been a pillar of the Baltimore community and continues to be a leader in advocating for the rights and improving the lives of people with physical, cognitive, and developmental disabilities. Our mission is to help individuals gain independence and increase their self-sufficiency in order to improve their overall quality of life through our diverse array of programs and services.

Project STEAM MD

S.T.E.A.M. is a Baltimore County, Maryland based 501(c)3 non-profit organization committed to is dedicated to building future leaders and entrepreneurs through exposure to STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art, and math). They also immerse students in the design process to prepare them to be the inventors, entrepreneurs and job makers of the future.

The Maryland School for the Blind

The Maryland School for the Blind

As a statewide organization MSB provides outreach, education, and residential services for students to reach their fullest potential by preparing them to be a successful and well-rounded contributing members of their communities

Sister's Circle

Sister's Circle is a mentoring program: Through long-term mentoring relationships, Sisters Circle™ empowers at-risk girls to define success for themselves, make intentional decisions about their futures, and become self-sufficient young women.

Corner Team

Corner Team uses Olympic-style boxing to strengthen core competencies that improve academic performance, encourage healthy and active lifestyles, and build strong communities of engaged citizens.

Pathfinders for Autism

Maryland’s largest autism organization. Pathfinders for Autism works to support and improve the lives of individuals affected by autism through expansive, customized programming, and by providing resources, training, information and activities free of charge.

The YMCA

The Y in Central Maryland strives to reflect and celebrate the rich diversity of the communities we serve. We focus our work on ensuring the equity and inclusion of all, with a laser focus on uplifting those who are too often marginalized in our communities.